DEMOCRATS IN PERFECT HARMONY.

Mass Convention At Hardinsburg
Saturday A Business Affair
Gen. David Murray Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 8.—(Special)
—The Democrats of Breckinridge County in Mass Convention met at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Court House with a representative gathering from all parts of the county.

In the absence of county chairman, T. J. Moore, the convention was called to order by Dr. Milton Bell, who called for no resolutions or charters.

The names of Gen. D. R. Murray and Judge H. D. Moorman were presented to the meeting. Mr. Murray was elected and in a neat way told why William Jennings Bryan would be elected in November.

There being no contests on and as the Democrats of Breckinridge are in perfect harmony and of one mind, no exciting or unusual scenes occurred. No Federal office holders were arrayed against the "outs" or the masses. It was a clean, business affair in which all were united in one common cause.

The chair appointed a committee composed of Jesse Whitworth, John A. Barry, Dr. M. Board, E. F. Shelman and C. V. Robertson, who submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted after which the convention adjourned:

RESOLUTIONS.

The Democracy of Breckinridge County in Mass Convention, to prove the call of the State Executive Committee for a State Convention to be held on June 11, 1908 for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic National Convention which convenes in Denver Colorado, July 7, 1908. We respectfully approve the call for a convention to be held outside the city of Louisville, whose representation in the legislature elected as United States Senator the leader of the Republican party of Kentucky instead of the Democratic nominee made so by the people of the State in a Democratic Primary.

We are in favor of the utmost harmony between all the facts that have heretofore existed within the ranks of the party; but we assert that harmony cannot be secured by putting a premium on party parity or by putting in places of power the leaders of the movement to defeat Democratic nominees and elect Republicans to office to which Democrats ought not to be elected.

Remembering the belief in the integrity, political and private character, and matchless ability of William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, we instruct our delegates to vote for delegates from the 4th Congressional District and from the State at large who will spare no effort to bring about the nomination of Mr. Bryan for the presidency at the Democratic Convention.

Recognizing the fitness of county chairman, T. J. Moore for the position for State Central committee man for the 4th Congressional District, we instruct our delegation to vote for him for such position and to vote for such other men and measures as Mr. Moore may direct in bringing about his election.

Judge H. D. Moorman having been mentioned as a delegate to the National Convention and declining in the interest of T. J. Moore's candidacy for State Central Committee man, he is hereby nominated as chairman of the Breckinridge County delegation to the State Convention.

We further instruct our delegation to vote as a unit upon all questions which may come before the District meeting delegates or the State Convention.

We endorse the record of the Hon. Ben Johnson, our efficient congressman and command him for his faithful service.

We recommend the following persons delegates to the State Convention: Hon. D. R. Murray, E. F. Lyons, Gus Brown, Mike Miller, Edmund Wroe, James Younger, John Jennings, R. C. Richardson, W. C. Blaine, Hon. E. H. Shelman, Jess Walls, Earl Bennett, Ernest Henderson, Willis Carter, Huse Alexander, Wade Pile, T. J. Moore, H. D. Moorman, C. V. Robertson and C. Moorman.

LIFE SPENT IN BRECKENRIDGE.

John Thomas Moore, Prominent Farmer, Dies After an Illness of Four Years.

WAS SIXTY YEARS OF AGE.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 9.—(Special)—The Democrats of Breckinridge County in Mass Convention met at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Court House with a representative gathering from all parts of the county.

The names of Gen. D. R. Murray and Judge H. D. Moorman were presented to the meeting. Mr. Murray was elected and in a neat way told why William Jennings Bryan would be elected in November.

His wife was Laura Bell Mercer, daughter of M. J. Mercer. To their union were born an interesting family of children, the eldest being Circuit Clerk Tom J. Moore, of Hardinsburg. The others are E. A. Moore, of Glendale; Mrs. Jas. Mattingly, of Atwell; and Joe, Will and Blackburn, and the sisters, Fannie and Anna. The mother and children survive their loss, as do two of Mr. Moore's sisters, Mrs. Joe White and Mrs. Edward Cannon, both of Grayson county.

The deceased was a life-long, active and influential Democrat and a charter member of the McDaniels lodge of Free Masons. After the dissolution of the McDaniels lodge he became a member at Glendale. In belief he was a Baptist and had never attended himself to the church. A few weeks before his death he was immersed, and his last days were ones of Christian resignation and full faith in the eternal rest beyond the grave.

His home was a most hospitable one, known to all who ever visited the Flights of Rough section of the county, and the visitor or traveler who once was entertained under his roof retained pleasant memories of true Kentucky hospitality as it was ever lavished in his home.

On Saturday afternoon, after the Rev. Dr. Shacklett, of Meade county, had preached the funeral at the home, the remains were given over to his Masonic brethren who laid them away in the family burying ground on the farm a few hundred yards from the house. W. J. Piggott, of Lexington, was master of ceremonies. Masons from Glendale, Short Creek, Hudson, Bevleyville, Hardinsburg, Hardin Springs and Leitchfield lodges were present, besides an immense gathering of other friends and relatives who came to pay their parting tribute of respect to a friend whom they honored and loved.

Cloverport Girl

Greatly Admired.

Miss Ray L. Heyser, of Cloverport, who will be a participant in the O'steen wedding, is now a house guest of Miss Irene Daly. Miss Heyser is a beautiful blonde and is very vivacious and attractive. Having visited here before, she has many friends and admirers among our people.—Franklin Favorite.

REPUBLICANS

Hold County Committee Meeting
At Hardinsburg--J. P. Haswell
Sr., Succeeds Gus Shellman.

Hardinsburg, Ky., June 9.—(Special)

—At a meeting of the Republican County Committee here Saturday afternoon, the Hon. John P. Haswell, Jr., was elected County Chairman to succeed Gus Shellman, who has been Chairman for something more than three years and a most excellent one at that. His fine record did not prevent there being a little army of seekers for his place. Besides Mr. Haswell, who consented to accept the place, Judge Wm. A. Dr. S. P. Parks, Herbert Beard, and John Bates were anxious to serve their party.

Allen R. Kincheloe was elected Secretary. This position has been held for some time by Mr. Haswell, who goes to the County Chairmanship.

Mrs. A. E. Smith, wife of A. E. Smith, cashier of Glendale Bank, has gone to Birmingham, Ala.

IRVINGTON CITY HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Piggott Elected Superintendent of Sunday School Departments--Newsy Personals.

ROBERT LYONS HONORED

Irvington was well represented at the Breckinridge County Sunday School Association held at Webster on June 3.

A large number from each church were present. We were honored by receiving three of the appointments in the selection of county officers. Mrs. W. J. Piggott, Sr., Superintendent of Departments, Mrs. John R. Wimp, superintendent of organization and Miss Lydia McGlothian, superintendent of primary. One of these, Mrs. Piggott, filed a new office in the Sunday School world, it being her duty to have an oversight of the entire work of all the departments, helping all and keeping in touch with the best methods for all the different departments.

Mrs. J. M. Mudd left Saturday for Louisville for an indefinite visit to relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Farrington and sister, Miss Ethel Farrington, have returned from Highland, where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cunningham and Mr. Will Gardner and children left Thursday for Chaney, after being here during the illness and death of their daughter and wife, Mrs. Ruth Gardner.

Miss Hettie Schindler, of Louisville, spent last week home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schindler.

Rev. E. W. Graves filled his regular appointment both morning and evening at the Presbyterian church. He preached two excellent sermons.

C. Brabant, Cloverport photographer will be here every Tuesday.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Services of M. E. Sunday School
Beautifully Conducted By Young Christian Workers.

The celebration of Children's Day of the Methodist Sunday School was beautiful. The program was short and entertaining and said by many the best that has ever been given on similar occasions.

The Japanese girls drill given by a number of pretty girls was extensively admired. The girls wore attractive kimonos and had their hair dressed in Japanese flowers. The messenger boys gave a military drill.

Rev. Currie succeeded in taking a large collection for the Sunday School at the close of the exercises.

Misses Grace Plank, Lula Severs and Margaret Burn deserve much credit for so well training the children. It meant much work and time to them. They were assisted by Miss Lizzie Skillman and Miss Louise Babage.

HART-CANNON.

Prominent People Of Breckenridge County Wedded Here.

Miss Ella Hart and William Cannon, of Breckinridge county were married this morning at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception by the Rev. Father Rock. The ceremony was witnessed by former Representative Dave Anderson and Sheriff Milt Miller of Breckinridge county, accompanied Miss Hart and Mr. Cannon to Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon are the most prominent people in Breckinridge county. Mr. Cannon is a wealthy farmer and has a large farm only a short distance from Hardinsburg. Mrs. Cannon is the daughter of Dr. John Hart, of McDaniels. They will remain in Louisville several days before returning home, and are stopping at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Louisville Times.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in use of it. In fact, when I took my wife to the doctor, he said she had been saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced this remedy there. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—Ennis Bros. Presence of Mind.

A clergymen was talking on the prevalence of selfishness. "We incline," he said, "to put ourselves too far ahead of other people. We could all make better persons than to do less service. As it is we are too much like the art student. When we go to school we are poor Vermont art student who shared a studio bedroom with a journalist from Wisconsin. The Vermonter went out one night to do the marketing and left his host home two chops. He laid them on the table, and the cat leaped up and devoured one.

"Hand me out," he said to his Wisconsin host, "the cat has eaten your chop."

SAYS OFFICER CASEY.

"Tis gr-eat times th' Raypublic'n party will be havin' at their conviction in th' Collysee-um week after next," said officer Casey to his wife. "I'll be thankful if it passes off without any bloodshed; but 'tis more'n likely there will be a fair't son or two kilt."

"What, murdered?" asked Mrs. Casey.

"No, crushed t'dith in th' rush t' git on th' Taft band wagon," said Casey.

"There will be manny a prom'nint shatesman that'll be glad t' hang on th' back spr-rings an' puff like he was pushin' th' whole ca-art."

"But if they ai-re all fr' Taft, thin why ar-e there so many contestants?" asked Mrs. Casey.

"A contist, ma'am, means no more th'n that there is not room in th' deligation f'r all th' loyal party min that hope later t' exchange their deligate badges fr' postmaster's jobs an' ministers t' furrin lands,"

"Take th' gr-eat Raypublic'n shate iv Alabama, fr' instance Alabama has a contist. Why? Because there ar-e, by th' last cins, sixty-sivin Raypublic'n in th' shate, with twenty-wan on th' deligation, by a strange coincidence, twenty-wan fidral jobs available fr' Alabamans. With nothin' but th' prospect iv starvation before them t'further four year, th' forty-six ar-e makin' a despit fight fr' life an' jobs.

"It makes no diff'rnce which crowd gits th' seats in th' convinton hall, fr' thim that is declared reg'lar won't dare vote fr' anywann but Taft. T' git home they have t' go through Wash'nton, an' c'n ye imagine any min that voted f'r Hughes durin' t' virture that near th' White House? 'Tis not so certain about th' Tixas deligation, however; fr' their return tickets read way in Ryosia, an' so they may virture t' vote fr' Knox—under assumed names, though."

"Thin if th' conviction is goin' t' do just what th' President wants, what's th' use iv goin' t' th' expise iv havin' it?" asked Mrs. Casey.

"If ye understand th' real purpose iv a convention, ma'am, y'd not be askin' such a question. A national conviction is held fr' the bennifit in th' hotels, th' cabinin', th' railways an' th' married min that don't dare be seen takin' a drop at home. Instucted deligates ar-e thim that have been told by their wifes t' be in bed reg'lar at 9 o'clock iv a night, while deligates at la-arge ar-e those that didn't have t' sign th' plidge before gettin' on th' train. An alternate is a deligate's understudy that does his votin' fr' him if th' gr-eat ma-an-gits stranded on a ba-ar an' can't be floated off before mornin'—Chicago Evening Post.

The members of the school board are interested in the children of Cloverport and they are eager to give them better advantages. They, like all unselish citizens, want two more rooms added to the school building and many everybody in town do his part to help the trustees succeed in this undertaking. A flower cannot grow and develop in a crowded bed; neither can a child develop, grow and gain intellectually, in a crowded school room. Let us do all we can for the school children, for a "little child shall lead us." We go to hear him speak his first verse in the Graded School, we attend his High School commencement and follow him where ever he goes. The brighter we make his path in life, the happier will be our life.

When the Democrats in Kentucky get in line and good fellowship with the Hon. Henry Watterson and Col. Bill Haldeman they will be in good shape to do something. You may say what you please about these two men but they are leaders, they are the power behind the throne in the Democratic ranks in old Kentucky. We don't admire their methods or their policies but we do admire their loyalty to their party and to their principles. No man in Kentucky has done more for the Democratic party than has Mr. Watterson.

Are you talking and working for water works? You know and every man knows how badly they are needed in our town. Why not get on the firing line, put yourself to the front and go for them! Your enthusiasm will enlist others. No greater work to engage in for Cloverport. Lets all get in line for water works all over the city.

The Democrats ought to turn over a new leaf. Endorse Roosevelt and his policies, that they love so well and nominate him on their ticket. That is the only road for them to take to get into the White House.

Uncle Sam has $500,000,000 surplus money now on hand that he don't know what to do with. The last Congress gave it to him. My isn't Uncle Sam rich.

John Ditto is a red hot Bryanite. He says the country is wild for him. It's another case of 1896 and some of us remember what kind of a case that was.

It will cost the newspapers of this country more than a quarter of a million dollars to handle the coming National conventions.

Harry Summers ought to turn himself into a June bridegroom and then he wouldn't have so much to say about June brides.

You can't route the Republicans of a thing they have had for forty years and run so successfully.

The Democrats are now engaged in their regular order of business, resolute and condemning.

We predict for Taft a greater victory than Roosevelt got.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the deafened portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitution of remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is inflamed the sound is very sharp, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Cadarck's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Parks-Norton Wedding.

Raymond, Ky., June 8.—(Special)—A very beautiful church wedding was that of Miss Nola Lee Norton and Mr. Owen M. Parks on June 2, at 7:30 p.m.

While the wedding service was being played by Mrs. Hollis Drane the bridal marchers entered. The bridesmaids were Misses May Wellington, Anna Parks and Dot Basham, and the groomsmen were Messrs. Clyde Gibson, Malcolm Robertson and Carlton Payne.

The bride was attired in brown, while the bridesmaids wore white, all carrying a beautiful bunch of flowers. A very beautiful and impressive ceremony was said by Rev. C. E. Scott, of Brandenburg. Immediately after the ceremony they left for the home of the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Parks, of Clifton Mills, where will make their home for a while. The bride is a gentle and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Norton of Webster, while the groom is a prosperous young farmer and son of H. B. Parks, of Clifton Mills. May their lives be one of peace and happiness.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT FORDSVILLE

Col. Edwin Forbes Talks About
The Early Settlers In An Elquent Address.

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT.

On Saturday, May 30, Decoration Day, Edwin Forbes, of Fordsville, held memorial services in honor of the early settlers of that community at Macedonia Baptist church, one mile south of Rockvale, Breckinridge county. At 10 o'clock a. m. Rev. Henry Fentress, a Baptist minister, opened the service by a few remarks on the solemnity of the occasion that had brought them together and after the choir had sung a hymn and he had offered up a fervent prayer to the Divine ruler for his blessings on these descendants of the early settlers of the community he gave up the pulpit to Col. Forbes, who was dressed in a full uniform of the rebellion. He prefaced his address by giving a short account of the early settlement of Kentucky by Virginia and North Carolina and how by holding a line of forts from the Ealls of the Ohio, now Louisville, to Boonesboro and the intermediate stations during the Revolutionary War, which so greatly facilitated the ultimate success of Washington's army.

Col. Forbes gave an account of some of the engagements between the settlers and the Indians at Fort Hardin, now Hardinsburg, and Barnets Station, now Hartford, and read a list of names of the early settlers of what is now known as the Cut Off in Breckinridge county and its surrounding and also a list of those who served in Washington's Continental army and later in the War of 1812, including the names of Geo. Eskridge Ben. Burch, Stanford Petty, Isaac Johnson and James Wells, of Washington's army, and Wm. Fentress, Wm. Blain, Mr. Buchanan, Jacob Clemmons, John Pattee, John Ford, Wm., Keawn, Eliash, Barker and John Askins, of Gov. Shelby's Kentucky troops in Gen. W. H. Harrison's Northwestern army. He also told of the hardships and dangers in settling homes and driving back the prowling bands of discontented savages long after peace had been made with them.

He said that the early settlers were a social and religious people, that they brought from their homes in the old settlements their English Bibles and hymn books, and until they could establish churches they held religious meetings at each others homes and the site of one of their first churches is near where the Macedonia church now is.

Fifty years ago he knew some of these early settlers and though they were far advanced in years, their minds were unimpaired by age and they talked pleasantly of their early setting in what was then a wilderness and how near their journey of life was over.

Col. Forbes closed his address by admonishing the school teachers to teach the rising generation to reverence the memory of these early settlers who not only hurled back British oppression and Indian atrocities but made smooth the path for generations yet to rise up. He warned the school children of the importance of education if they ever expected to be useful and good men and women.

STEDMAN'S LOST BOOK.

How the Poet-Banker Paid For an Outburst of Temper.

Edmund Clarence Stedman, the poet-banker, had a high temper and was easily provoked. Once, when he was exasperated by the cross stupidity of his servant, he threw a book at his head. The boy ducked, and the book sailed out of the window. After it hurried the master, but he was too late a puncher to have time to search for it. Stedman had to wonder what book he had thrown away and to his horror discovered that it was a quaint and rare little volume for which he had paid $50. His chagrin was intense, as the work was almost unique and the prospects of replacing it were remote.

Some time afterward when browsing in a second hand bookshop our spleenistic poet-banker perched to his great delight on a copy very heavily bound. He asked the dealer, "Is it very rare?" replied the dealer, "but as you are an old customer I'll let you have it for $40." No body else could have it for less than $60. Stedman paid the sum and took the book with his treasures as soon as possible and sat down to gloat over it. A card dropped out of the leaves. It was his own. Further examination showed that he had bought back his own property. It cured him of casting looks at servants' beads—New York Press.

There is Biblical proof of the fact that gloves have been worn 3,000 years. THREE DEADLY AGENTS.

Peculiar Properties of a Spider, a Grain and a Vine.

What is the most terrible form in which death comes? Here are three but which one of them is the worst I know to say?

In Penn. parts of South Australia found a small spider about half as big as a pen. When this insect digs its fangs into its victim it inserts a poison which begins at once and it seeps up the blood vessels and spreads through the body causing instant dreadful agony. The worst part of it is that the victim usually suffers for two days, but death in the end is inevitable.

Another fearful death results from eating "blatta," a vegetable growing in the earth in which a female grain causes violent mania, ending in death. "Blatta" occasionally grows among the rice crop, from which it is hard to distinguish until dry, when the stalks grow out of the brick roadsides.

There is a Saponaria plant, also called the "water-plant," which grows any living thing coming in contact with it. Its tentacles twine round the object seized, searing and burning the flesh like redhot wires. Then the prey is devoured by the plant and thus crushed to death.

The last is a vine called the "deadly nightshade," which grows any living thing coming in contact with it. Its tentacles twine round the object seized, searing and burning the flesh like redhot wires. Then the prey is devoured by the plant and thus crushed to death.

You needn't tell me such a—

"It's a fact," broke in the other.

"Why, how in the world—

"Well, I'll tell you. A year and a half ago I bought an automobile for $1,000. I paid $200 down and paid $100 a month for gas, oil, repairs, parts, storage, taxes and other expenses connected with it. I traded it for a suburban lot."

"The lot proved to be in the middle of a swamp, and when a real estate man came to sell a horse and buggy for it took him up."

"The horse ran away one day and smashed the buggy into kindling wood. I traded the horse for a gold watch."

"The watch wouldn't keep good time. I swapped it for a bicycle. One day I fell off the bicycle and put a finger out of joint. Then I exchanged the machine for a secondhand typewriter."

"I see."

"And I've no use for the typewriter."

Do you know of anybody that would give me a good dog for it?"—Youth's Companion.

Don't trouble the jury, Mr. Stammers, about the proverbs. There is not one of them who would not sell his father sixpenny worth of halfpence."

"But, my lord," said Stammers in a subservient tone, and added to quote the Prophet Jeremiah."

"Don't tell me," replied the baron.

"I have no doubt your friend Mr. Myer is just as bad as the rest of them."

WAITED PATIENTLY
FOR DEATH ANGEL.

Mrs. H. L. Zeigler, Of New Bridge, Oregon, Dies Of Consumption In Hard-insburg.

DAUGHTER OF MR. DURHAM.

Henderson, Ky., June 9.—(Special.)—At five o'clock Thursday morning, June 4, Mrs. H. L. Zeigler, of New Bridge, Oregon, quietly breathed her last at the home of her father, Mr. James Durham, of this city.

On January first 1907, the deceased, whose maiden name was Edith Durham, became the bride of Mr. H. L. Zeigler who had come all the way from Oregon to claim her as his wife. They soon left for their distant home with dreams of many happy years.

His wife's failing health caused Mr. Zeigler to return some time ago with her and the little Edith who had come to brighten their home. In consumption's clutches she reached her father's home, patiently to await for the death she knew must be near.

Mr. Zeigler was a beautiful Christian character, a member of the M. E. church South.

On Friday morning the Rev. B. A. Brandon preached the funeral sermon at the Methodist church. The local and several of the Cloverbright members of Knights of Pythias were present. Mr. Zeigler was a K. P.

The interment was made on the former homestead of Mr. Durham, near Kirk, where five other brothers and sisters lie buried.

The News extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Mr. Plank III.

Master Mechanic Plank has been ill since Sunday. He will probably be able to be at his office at the Henderson Route shops today.

Million A Year For Roads.
Connecticut still leads in the good roads movement, and still holds the third to get into it. New Jersey being the first, four years before her and Massachusetts the second, in 1892. Now Connecticut spends $1,000,000 a year, while the first spends but $690,000 and the second but $100,000 less than Connecticut. The state which gets the largest amount per capita for good roads by far, the only other states whose total annual appropriations are larger being New York, with $2,500,000, and Pennsylvania, with $1,500,000, but both states are vastly larger than little Connecticut.

Bad Roads, Indeed.
It is no wonder that the grangers are speaking pieces in favor of better roads, as the mud is something formidable on the country roads. East Longmeadow, Mass., one of the churches was closed on a recent Sunday on account of the muddy condition of the roads, says the Hartford Times. A Hartford funeral party, driving to Cromwell, found the roads impassable in some places, rendering it necessary to turn to the side roads. Some residents declare that they "never saw the beat of it," and the chauffeur who gets off the miascum is entitled to a premium.

The Cheapest Roadmaker.
The "gavel roads without money" movement that has by means of King's split log road drag converted the slough holes of the "corn belt" roads into model turnpikes is extending to the West, and with the roads which are either very bad or very bad, says Garden Magazine. Mr. King is arranging with the various state boards of agriculture to give a series of practical demonstrations of the use of his device on eastern roads where the success of road dragging is more doubtful because of sand and rocks.

Six Cent Lambs

Ernest Henderson is wearing a broad smile. "See that field of lambs over there? they are mine and I sold them for 6 cents a pound, he said, and was not a bit sorry for the other fellow."

Ollie Lewis will go to Lewisport Sunday to be the guest of friends.

A Good Trade.

J. C. Dagin, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine, who opened his office in this city several weeks ago, continues to have a good trade. Any one wanting a fine machine can get it from him.

Chas. Johnson Dead.

Chas. Johnson, one of the best-known young men in the Dutches community, died at the home of his parents Wednesday night. His brother John Johnson, son of St. Louis, attended the funeral.

Pretty Party.

Miss Helen Kingsberry was the guest of honor at a party given in celebration of her eighth birthday last Tuesday at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kingberry. A number of her little friends were present and had a most joyous time.

Good Show.

Emerson's Floating Palace gave a splendid entertainment here Saturday night. The entire program was bright and entertaining. The music was good and best of all, the show was clean morally. Mr. Emerson is to be commended for putting such a high-class performance on his boat and for this reason he is always welcome in Cloverbright.

Public Highway.

Mrs. Maggie Sanders, living in the neighborhood of Patesville, Hancock county, was here one day last week and saw out a warrant before Squire Bates against Henry Spencer, of the same locality, charging him with having detained her on the public highway against her will.

Mrs. Sanders was alone in her buggy, returning home from this city, when she says Spencer accosted her. She says she got out of her buggy, and Spencer grabbed hold of her, but she pulled away from him, and ran some distance to the nearest house. Spencer lives in Hancock county, and the sheriff there has a warrant for his arrest.

A New Yacht

Mr. Ira Behan launched his new yacht in the Ohio Saturday afternoon. It is an elegant little launch and will be used for pleasure trips only.

Children's Service.

YOUNG MAN

KILLED BY TRAIN

Remains of Allen Burch Brought Home From Gallagher, Ill.,
To Hardsburg

LIVED TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

Harrisburg, June 9.—(Special)—The remains of Allen Burch, son of J. O. Burch, of Kewanee, Ill., arrived here Sunday night and were buried in St. Ronald's cemetery Monday morning.

On trying to alight from a moving train last Tuesday at Gallagher, Ill., he was thrown under the train, suffering such mangling of feet and limbs that both legs had to be amputated. He survived the amputation but died on Friday.

Allen Burch formerly lived two miles from Harrisburg on the Leitchfield road. Two or three years ago they moved to Illinois. He was an excellent young man and had many friends. The father and three brothers accompanied the remains here for burial. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved in this untimely death of one just entering into manhood.

Chronic Stomach Trouble.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH
RELIEVED.

Perhaps No Medicine in the World
Has Relieved More Cases of Catarrh of the Stomach Than Pe-ru-na.

The Symptoms of Stomach
Catarrh Are Heaviness After Eating, Belching Gas, Sourness of the Stomach, Sluggish Bowels.

ALDERMAN GEO. W. WEICK.
DENVER, CO.

SAYS—
"I HAVE USED PERUNA FOR
CATARRH OF THE STOMACH
AND IT HAS HELPED ME WONDERFULLY."

SOME OTHER STARTLING TESTIMONIALS.

ALDERMAN GEORGE W. WEICK,
1174 South Seventh Street, Denver,
Col., Alderman Eleventh Ward, writes:
"I have used Peruna for catarrh of the stomach and it has helped me wonderfully."

Chronic Stomach Trouble.

MRS. SAMUEL A. SEAL, Route 2,
Treadway, Tenn., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to testify to the great good your medicine, Peruna, has done for me in a chronic case of catarrh of the stomach. I was confined to bed for months and could not get out of bed. I had tried everything that I could find recommended for catarrh, without any benefit. I tried the best physicians in Hancock County, with little or no benefit. I then tried two of the best physicians in Hawkins County, and found they were doing me no good.

I was gradually growing worse."

"Then a friend of mine, passing by, handed me one of your pamphlets, and seen how Peruna was recommended for catarrh. I sent to you for Tenement next morning, a distance of about fifteen miles, and procured some of your Peruna, and began taking same according to directions, and after taking it a few days I began to get well again, until I was able to go to work on the farm again, and now I am in very good health and do work on my farm.

Peruna is a well tested and frequently used remedy, and for catarrh of the stomach it is unsurpassed.

"My catarrh was principally located in my head and neck. I tried many remedies, and was about to give up hope, but Peruna cured me, and I know it will cure any one else who suffers from this disease. It gives me great pleasure to testify to the curative effects of this medicine."
